

EXECUTIVE ORDERS, PROCLAMATIONS OF GENERAL APPLICABILITY, AND STATEMENTS
ISSUED BY THE GOVERNOR
PURSUANT TO A.R.S. § 41-1013(B)(3)

The Administrative Procedure Act (APA) requires the full-text publication of all Executive Orders and Proclamations of General Applicability issued by the Governor. In addition, the Register shall include each statement filed by the Governor in granting a commutation, pardon or reprieve, or stay or suspension of execution where a sentence of death is imposed. With the exception of egregious errors, content (including spelling, grammar, and punctuation) of these orders has been reproduced as submitted.

 SUDDEN INFANT DEATH SYNDROME AWARENESS MONTH ***

[M10-355]

WHEREAS, Sudden Infant Death Syndrome (SIDS), the sudden and unexpected death of apparently healthy babies, is one of the leading causes of death in Arizona for infants one month to one year of age. Nationally, SIDS claims the lives of between 2,000 and 3,000 babies each year, approximately one baby for every one thousand born; and

WHEREAS, the National Institute of Child Health and Human Development, the Maternal and Child Health Bureau, the American Academy of Pediatrics provide recommendations for safe sleep positions and environmental factors that may help reduce the risk for SIDS; and

WHEREAS, infants in Arizona continue to die from SIDS and caregivers are unaware of risk reduction practices, including placing babies on their backs to sleep, choosing safe bedding, keeping babies from overheating, choosing breastfeeding when possible and creating tobacco-free environments; and

WHEREAS, increasing public awareness among all Arizona parents and infant caregivers on the importance of creating safe sleep environments has a great potential for saving lives and sparing family the tragedy of an infant's death.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Janice K. Brewer, Governor of the State of Arizona, do hereby proclaim October 2010 as in Arizona and urge citizens to practice SIDS risk reduction and safe sleep recommendations to reduce the risk of SIDS and other sleep related infant deaths.

 PHYSICIAN ASSISTANT WEEK ***

[M10-364]

WHEREAS, quality, affordable and accessible patient-centered health care, provided by skilled practitioners, contributes to the well-being and quality of life for all citizens of Arizona; and

WHEREAS, physician assistants are often the first point of contact for many patients, and play a vital role in helping patients understand their medical needs and empower them to become effective advocates for themselves; and

WHEREAS, physician assistants are academically and clinically prepared to provide health care services, including diagnosis and treatment of disease, assist in surgery and prescribe medications with the direction of a supervising physician; and

WHEREAS, a valuable asset to the medical community, physician assistants work side-by-side with physicians to enhance the delivery of high quality health care for patients, often in medically underserved and rural areas; and

WHEREAS, physician assistants have earned the respect of the general public for their dedication and contributions to people's lives and for working together with health care teams to ensure the delivery of more efficient and effective health care services.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Janice K. Brewer, Governor of the State of Arizona, do hereby proclaim October 6-12, 2010 as
